Evaluation of the Make a song and dance about safety day
Written Comments

Please tell us one thing that you will take away today to use with your client group:

- Artworks activity safety. Promoting safety through play, creative and ... etc.
- All of the above (as in the presentations) especially information from Annie Berrington Ignite Artworks plus safety central.
- Home safety
- Home safety
- The information given and activities were really useful. The Ignite workshop was really good and is something that I would definitely use back at the centre with adults and children
- Creative way of working. Fantastic way to engage the client group in a fun way
- Really enjoyed the information given on dog bites and educating children about dogs. Good websites and information given. Also enjoyed the water safety.
- I now have lots of ideas for inviting parents into school to take part in various safety workshops
- Use more story boards
- Experience of workshop (Ignite) will probably use this in one of parent groups
- Home safety for children and parents group work
- Will be doing role plays with families
- Try to be creative and think out of the box and try to make groups interactive, visual if interesting
- There are other ways than just visual displays to get home safety across
- Many resources can be used to get the safety message across
- Client group from 0-5 as child minder. 3-93 as SAFE project
- How to put a picture storyboard together in an interesting way for clients to understand without speaking
- Networking great
- I will be taking ideas from the groups that were working in workshop 3. The ideas will be used when I hope to organise the Child Safety Week
- Story boards(Ignite workshop), home safety
- Been inspired to do more work around road safety (attended workshop) and to communicate with artworks to work more with teenagers in school
- Doing a road safety session (attended workshop) during Child Safety Week so will use some of the road safety resources that I got on the workshop
- Particularly like the leaflets re car restraints. Also the work leaflets to use with parents (attended Road Safety workshop)
- The “teddy takes a tumble” story sack was very interesting (attended Road Safety workshop) and I think that will be suitable for the age group I work with
- Need to find ways of presenting to client group other than as posters on clinic wall, have got a few ideas from the day
- Resources for use in displays and list of contacts
- Road Safety resources and ideas to use (attended Road Safety workshop)
- Lots of resources/training mat to use with parents and children
- Look into water safety. Also information about resources we can access
- Workshops and freebies available for schools

- Safety issues for foster carers to use in my assessments and pass on information
- That I'll be passing on relevant information and making enquires
- Never stroke a dog, keep well away
- Issues around dogs
- Where to go for additional work/support with families. Networking
- Useful information on keeping children safe near sea/water. Now understand colour coding of safety flags
- Dog trust was very informative. I will be able to talk with children who are afraid of dogs and know that I will be giving the right information
- Transfer of story book approach to home visit households with dogs. Ideas about 'Arts in Community'
- How to be safe around dogs
- How to be safe around dogs
- Being aware of what to do if a dog comes to you. The body language of the dog
- Would like to have Donna come into our school to work with 4-5 year old about dog safety. Think it will be very useful for our children and possibly parents
- Safety around dogs. Approach. Body language
- Fire action plan and an awareness of how quickly a fire starts
- I will be discussing fire safety with all of my clients
- Check fire alarm and ensure the children wear seat belts all the time
- Fire safety action plans
- The organisations and services available
- Fire/car safety information and information for parents about what is out there. Would like to access Artworks services as sound very interesting
- For work – spreading message more about devising more appropriate fire action plans. Personally – day fire action plans, sharing information re RNLI and dogs trust workshops for schools
- Do an action plan in case of a fire
- Escape route practice. Calling fire service when not needed
- Reinforcing safety measures re fire and home safety
- Safety first
- Good to know what organisations are out there to deliver to parents in our children centres
- Where to get the resources for home safety for my centre to use with the families I work with
- Safety tips and activities

Additional Comments

- More workshops would be preferable to presentations which go into depth.
- Enjoyed conference very much
- Very good. Well presented
- Really good, very useful
- Thoroughly enjoyed the day, very informative and interesting. Really enjoyed the various speakers coming in and doing their presentations. Thank you, I can cascade information to my workplace. I particularly found the resources useful? Thank you again
- Workshop very fun (Ignite). The workshop idea was really good, kept everyone interested after lunch, was held by very enthusiastic people! And liked being given the option to pick between several groups. Also FANTASTIC food!!
- Great idea having lists of contacts will make them easy to contact for organising visits from them!
- Really enjoyed meeting new people and to learn new ways of promoting safety

- Useful day – but would have thought more might have been done in ‘Arts’ based. Also would have liked input to support safety week in June. Would have liked more workshops and less presentations
- Enjoyed conference
- Enjoyed overall day. Ignite Artworks leaders were friendly and light (attended workshop) – excellent. Could have done with being able to attend more than 1 workshop. Excellent food
- Very informative, will use much of the information, more please
- Really enjoyed artwork session
- Enjoyed the whole, all sessions were very informative. Excellent lunch, well done to organiser. All speakers were good. Thank you
- Really enjoyed the day, was very useful and informative
- Very useful day
- Lunch was excellent! A really fabulous curry, compliments to the chef!
- Disappointed at ... of Barnardos workshop
- Thank you
- Love all the free workshops available and free resources. Will certainly use them in the future!
- Not enough leaflets. Good food
- Would have liked to do 2 workshops instead of one
- Impressed by the energy and enthusiasm
- Good. Would have been nice to do all the workshops
- Enjoyable, informative. Was interesting to find out additional agency support to work with families. Lots of free resources also to take away! Nice to get something for free
- Enjoyed the dogs trust presentation – useful tips to pass onto my child
- Very good, overall day. Just a shame about all the dust coming down from the ceiling and covering me and others
- Good venue. Good lunch
- Dog safety workshop was very useful and we would definitely ask the Dog Trust to deliver a similar workshop to one of our group
- All the talks today have been very informative and will be great to get these agencies working in all schools and with parents. Like the “free” resources! Thank you
- Needed the dog as I don’t like dogs. Would have found it interesting how I would have reacted in a room with a dog
- Very enjoyable
- Thoroughly enjoyed the day. Good to be made aware of what is available
- Positive day with lots of new information. Enjoyed workshop, positive use of role play and how young people can access
- A good event, thoroughly enjoyed fire safety workshop, very informative and fun and relevant to my line of work. Only criticism is that bits of the ceiling were crumbling down onto us during the day (3rd and 4th rows at the back)
- I found it very interesting and very glad that I came to attend this conference. I have learnt a lot and taking lots of interesting ideas with me. Presenter was very nice and funny
- Great presentation. I now feel more confident and competent to present fire safety to my schools
- Very informative
- Very good, enjoyed the whole day
- Today was really good and I’ve learnt a lot
- Excellent venue
